DOES ITALY WANT WAR?

Startling Rumor Regarding King Humbert's Intention

ANGERED AT MR. BLAINE'S DELAY.

Rudini said to have threatened to Dismiss Minister Porter unless a Reply is Made at Once.

THE REPORT DISCREDITED.

ROME, April 11.—It is reported that if the United States government does not answer Marquis Imperiali's note by to-day Mr. Porter, the American minister here, will be ordered to leave

Italy and the whole Italian legation in Washington will be recalled and Italian interests left in charge of the British minister.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Something of a sensation was caused by a dispatch from Rome stating that Minister Porter will be dismissed and the Italian legation withdrawn from Washington

if the Italian government does not receive a reply to "Marquis Imperiali's note" by noon to-day. The story was generally discredited, because to dismiss Minister Porter without giving his government an opportunity to recall him would be almost equivalent to a declaration of war. Besides, Marquis Imperiali is here merely in charge of "current affairs," and any communication from the Italian government would not be by note from him but from

Di Rudini himself. Imperiali would merely deliver the Rudini communications to the secretary of state.

The statement that the dispatch from Rome was, however, so explicit, and as so much of the information in regard to the affair with Italy has come first from Rome it was thought worth while to make inquiries of Secretary Blaine and Marquis Imperiali. The secretary declined to answer the numerous inquiries in regard to the matter early in the evening and Imperiali was "not at home." Later Secretary Blaine unhesitatingly expressed the opinion that the dispatch from Rome was untrue.

It is known here that Secretary

Blaine has prepared an answer to the message of Premier Rudini. The fact of the preparation of Secretary Blaine's reply is not only well understood, but it is stated moreover that the secretary's letter was submitted to the president and his cabinet and was found to be satisfactory. In view of these circumstances it is ascertained with considerable confidence that the letter of Secretary Blaine has already been sent to Marquis Rudini, though whether it was communicated by mail or telegraph is not known. If the former method were adopted the Italian premier, it is believed, was apprised of the fact. The Rome dispatch was shown to the president, and he returned word that he had nothing to say on the subject.

LONDON, April 11.—Advices from Italy represent the Rudini cabinet as deeply hurt by American comment on the Italian difficulty and that there is consequently a revulsion of feeling in favor of aggressive measures. It is said that King Humbert has received from the editor of an Italian newspaper in America a package of American papers containing pictures ridiculing his majesty and belittling the power and dignity of Italy. One picture in particular, representing the king as a monkey, gave great offense. Italy's blood is again boiling and something startling is anticipated within a few days.

WANTED A LIMIT ON BONDS.

The people voted school bonds notwithstanding that a certain public meeting voted not to do so.—Recorder.
Why not tell the truth about such matters? Then the people, whether they live on Quality Hill or in the valley, will not be misled. The proposition to amend the city charter in relation to issuing bonds came before the citizen's mass meeting in a vague, blind form, couched in the following words:
Section 7. Amend section 27 of chapter 12 by striking out the whole of said section and inserting in place thereof the following:
Section 27. The city of Janesville, by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the common council, may borrow money and issue bonds or certificates of indebtedness therefor, payable at such time or times, in such amounts, and with such rate of interest as the common council may determine; provided, however, that the money so borrowed shall be used for the purpose of carrying out the powers of authority now or hereafter granted to the city.

City Attorney Doe was called upon to explain this amendment, and he informed the public meeting that it was for purposes, building of school houses, bridges, sewers, or for any purpose the council desired.

In the opinion of the meeting it was a dangerous proposition, as it granted unlimited power to the common council to issue bonds for any purpose a majority of that body saw fit. It therefore unanimously voted not to concur. Had the proposition been submitted to issue bonds for twenty thousand dollars for school purposes, no opposition would have been made.

There are other ways provided for building school houses, bridges, sewers, etc., without going to the legislature every time a pound of ten-penny nails is to be purchased for public use. The present way may be somewhat complicated, yet complicated as it is, it is far more safe in the hands of the property owners than delegated to an agent appointed through political intrigue.

WHAT THE VOTE MEANS.

The vote in Rock county hardly bears out the democratic assertion that S. U. Pinney was rebuked for his stand on the treasury issues. Judge Pinney received 3,879 votes in the county while Judge Ellis received 2,102.
If a true conclusion is to be drawn from the election, search must be made along another line. It is reported that Mr. Ellis' campaign was largely carried on through the Lutheran and Catholic churches, and that word was passed along among the churches conveying the mandate to vote for Ellis. Whether this be true or not can not be stated with any authority, but the fact that in those precincts where the Catholic and Lutheran vote is the heaviest the vote for Ellis was disproportionately large is cited as in corroboration of the ante-election reports. But if it be true that there was an attempt by those churches to elect Ellis, the result would tend to indicate that the church is not as potent in politics as when it first tried its hand.

Reports from various sources are that the congressional appointment bill will pass as presented. The senate contains the narrowest majority, and if the republicans were not able to block it in that branch, it is more than likely that they cannot get democratic assistance enough in the assembly to defeat it there. The winners following in the assembly in opposition to the ring gerrymander is not expected to be strong enough to accomplish anything. The assembly is practically the stronghold of the ring, and the adoption of the report by the senate virtually settles the question. Democratic aspirants in Rock county might as well begin to figure up their chances on the appointment as already announced.

There is a bill before the Pennsylvania legislature to regulate the charges of sleeping car, parlor and chair car companies. It provides that companies shall not charge more than one-quarter cent per mile for chairs or seats and one-half cent per mile for berths. This of course is in addition to the regular railroad fare. The bill is a good one and should be passed not only by Pennsylvania, but by every state. Rates of all kinds except those described have been reduced in the past few years. But the Pullman extortion goes on charging just the same prices it has for years. The legislature should give his company a lesson in rates.

Madison Journal. It is rather amusing to see the apologetics, the organs of the notorious "reform" democracy are making for the projected session of the legislature. When republican legislatures are in session the democratic press is most enthusiastic in demanding early adjournment and furnishing columns of weighty arguments to show that "the republicans are wasting the people's money in unnecessarily prolonged sessions." The organs of reform now declare that a long session is really much needed by the cause of "reform."

Excepting the Madison Journal, published at the capital, and the Milwaukee Journal which got the news through of local favoritism The Gazette was the only paper in the state to present the details of the legislative gerrymander last evening.

The democratic hosts led by Assemblyman Ed. Keogh, succeeded in knocking out the co-employee bills in the assembly. Mr. Keogh and his associates are friends of the employees, when the railroads are not interested.

Order Harrison thinks of becoming a farmer. The farmers' alliance may provide an avenue for him in which his political activity may have scope for action.

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES.

Speaker of the House of Commons.

HON. ARTHUR WELLESLEY PEELE.

The Right Hon. Arthur Wellesley Peel, speaker of the British house of commons, is the youngest son of the late Right Hon. Sir Robert Peel, and was born in 1829, was educated at Eton and Balliol college, Oxford, entered parliament in 1865 for Warwick, and has continued to represent this constituency ever since. He was chosen speaker in 1884.

P. T. BARNUM'S FUNERAL.

Thousands Pay a Tribute of Respect in Bridgeport.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 11.—Business here was almost entirely suspended out of respect to the memory of Bridgeport's great benefactor, the late P. T. Barnum. Mourning emblems were to be seen on all sides and the day was one of gloom and sorrow. At an early hour the streets were filled with people, not only of this city, but from the surrounding towns and cities. The funeral services were begun by a short prayer at the residence at 10:30, only the members of the family being present. The body was then conveyed to the Congregational church, where Dr. Collyer, of New York, delivered a touching oration. The singing was especially beautiful and the floral tributes many and appropriate. The church was crowded. A grave followed the body to the great burial vault.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 11.—The will of the late P. T. Barnum was read at Marana immediately after the funeral in the presence of the family and representatives of the press. The wealth of the great showman is estimated to amount to over $5,000,000. The first will was written by Mr. Barnum in 1852, since which time eight codicils have been added at various times.

By a codicil dated July, 1890, he gives his wife $100,000 absolutely and $40,000 annuity. He bequeathed to the First Universalist church of this city $15,000 for providing preaching and other services recognized by the United States convention as in conformity to the faith of Universalism. He bequeathed Caroline C. Thompson, of New York, $100,000, to Clinton H. Seely, his grandson, $24,000. In the same codicil he states that he has no male heir named Barnum, and provides that if Clinton H. Seely will change his name to Clinton Barnum Seely he will give him $25,000. The contract between Barnum and Bailey shall be enforced and 3 per cent. of his share in the show is given to Clinton Barnum Seely providing he will devote sufficient time in the interest of the show to carry it on successfully. If the sum reaches over $10,000 a year the balance goes to the estate.

To Mrs. Henry Buchtel, Denver, Col., he gives 765 acres of valuable land in Denver. To Treasurer Fish of the great show is bequeathed 2 per cent. of the profits, providing he remains at the end of five years, in addition to his present salary. The real estate, after the payment of bequests, is divided among his children and grandchildren. To Tufts college he bequeaths $40,000. To Universalist societies and institutions, to hospitals and asylums in various cities about $30,000 is left. He leaves $5,000 for a statue of himself at his grave. Any contestant of the will is to be cut off.

The last codicil, dated March 30, 1891, provides that his executors shall complete the new historical and scientific society building in this city, the same to cost $125,000.

William R. Hincks, treasurer of the City savings bank, and Treasurer Fish are named as executors to serve without bond.

WILL SUCCEED MR. HUSTON.

E. H. Nebecker, of Indiana, Believed to Have Been Chosen.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—It is now practically settled that Mr. E. H. Nebecker, of Indiana, will succeed Mr. J. N. Huston, of the same state, as United States treasurer. The latter is now on his way to Washington and will have a conference with the president this afternoon. It is understood that Mr. Nebecker will also be here this afternoon and that arrangements for the formal transfer of the office will be made before the president's departure south and west.

Recognized the Colored Race.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The president has listened to the voice of Afro-America, and a colored man is now on the world's fair commission. There being a vacancy in the commission at large Mr. Harrison has appointed R. W. Furnas, of Nebraska, an alternate, to fill the vacancy, and Hale G. Parker, of Missouri (colored), to fill the alternate's vacancy caused by the promotion of Furnas.

Met a Terrible Death.

MILWAUKEE, April 11.—While assisting in cleaning one of the big beer kettles at the Schlitz brewery Joseph Hamm fell into the vat, which was filled with boiling water. None of his associates witnessed the accident, and when they missed him he was felt for with a pole and located in the bottom of the vat. His body was horribly scalded when taken out, and life was extinct.

Flooding Near Racine.

RACINE, Wis., April 11.—Duck creek, a small stream running through the northern part of this city, overflowed banks Thursday night, carrying away bridges and sidewalks.

DENY ANNA'S STORY.

Miss Dickinson's Charges Emphatically Denounced by Doctors.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 11.—Miss Susan E. Dickinson was in the city Friday in consultation with friends relative to the statements made by her sister to a reporter in New York. Miss Dickinson said that she had telegraphed Dr. Seward that he would be held in damages for the injury he is doing her sister's mind confirming her delusion, and also that friends of West Pittston and vicinity will testify that she has devoted her life for years to the welfare and interests of Anna. In conclusion Miss Susan says that she sees now that her friends told her truly when they said she was foolish to devote her life to Miss Anna. Hereafter Anna must find faithful servants wherever she can. Miss Susan does not explain why, when the Scranton Republican first gave to the world the story of her sister's insanity, she sent a strongly worded denial of it to every paper in the region claiming that the report was "a cruel outrage."

PHILADELPHIA, April 11.—The story that Anna Dickinson was sane when she was committed to the Danville insane asylum and that her commitment was irregular; that the state lunacy laws were in her case flagrantly violated, and that Philadelphia physicians and officials were concerned in the injustice done her, is officially and particularly denied here. The letter which Miss Dickinson says she sent to the chairman and secretary of the state board of charities, Drs. Thomas G. Morton and Henry M. Wetherill, of this city, was received by Dr. Wetherill, who visited her immediately upon the receipt of the letter, after having shown it to Dr. Morton. Thomas Barlow, attorney of the board, accompanied Dr. Wetherill to Danville. In telling of the visit Dr. Wetherill on Friday said:

"We found Miss Dickinson installed in the most comfortable ward of the whole institution. The Danville asylum, like other state asylums, is overcrowded, but only on the men's side. There is room among the women still for the comfortable accommodation of a number of new patients. Miss Dickinson's ward has a handsome parlor and a large dining room. Her room was tastefully furnished and had pictures, mirrors and every decoration in appearance that a refined woman could desire. It had all been put in order by the attendance of a couple of hours prior to our visit. Yet it was already in such a condition as is always found in the apartments of persons violently or acutely deranged. It was confused and upset and was in keeping with Miss Dickinson's appearance and manner."

"The interview was necessarily brief because she declined to talk to us or at least would say very little. When not actually talking to us she walked excitedly up and down the room, giving utterance to incoherent words and phrases and acting in exactly the manner that insane people are accustomed to act. Mr. Barlow requested her to sit down quietly and talk to us, but she said nothing about anticipating legal proceedings, as she charged. Indeed, I am positive that neither Mr. Barlow nor I had any mind regarding legal proceedings. On inquiry of Dr. Schultz afterward as to what he thought of her condition he said it was his medical opinion that she was a case of light insanity, but she had begun to improve during her residence in the hospital."

In reply to the query as to what his opinion was at the time, Dr. Wetherill said: "Neither Mr. Barlow nor myself had the slightest doubt but that she was deranged. I have been studying the medical aspect of insanity since 1875 and Mr. Barlow has been interested in it from a legal standpoint since 1878."

"Do you say officially and do you stake your professional reputation on Miss Dickinson's insanity while in Danville?"

"Yes, there is no doubt about it whatever."

"From a perusal of her story and from your knowledge of her case do you think she is entirely sane now?"

"Speaking from what I saw of her only, I will say that it is very probable that she is insane at the present time. Dr. Seward, of New York, I see, vouches for the opposite view of her case, and in the absence of another examination of Miss Dickinson I cannot speak positively of her condition."

Double Murder at Waukesha.

WAUKESHA, Wis., April 11.—At 10 o'clock Friday night Christian Preise, aged 75 years, and his wife, aged 72 years, were found lying nearly naked on the floor of their home, the wife dead and the husband dying. It is supposed to be a double murder.

Nearly Frantic.

Has it ever been your experience to be brought into frequent contact with a person who is nervous? If so, you must be aware that trivial causes, unnoticed by the vigorous, drives a nervous invalid to the verge of distraction. It is as unnecessary to particularize these as it is impossible to guard against them. The root of the evil is usually imperfect digestion and assimilation. To assist these functions, and through their renewed, complete discharge to reinforce the nerves, in conjunction with other portions of the physical organism, is within the power of Host's Stomach Bitters, systematically and continuously used. There is no disappointment here, no matter how nervous or how grievous the failures of so called tonics. No sedative or opiate—avoid both!—can compare with this with this invigorating nerve tonic. Constipation, biliousness, malaria, rheumatism, kidney troubles are cured by it.

LA GRIPPE.

EXTRACTS FROM DR. HARTMAN'S FAMOUS LECTURE ON THAT SUBJECT.

HISTORY OF FOUR EPIDEMICS—1847, 1860, 1870 AND 1890.

LA GRIPPE, EPIDEMIC INFLUENZA, ACUTE MALIGNANT CATARRH—DIFFERENT NAMES FOR ONE DISEASE.

REPORTED FOR THE PUBLIC PRESS.

I have been acquainted with La Grippe, also called Epidemic Influenza and acute Malignant Catarrh, many years. The first time I ever had any personal knowledge of this disease was in 1847, while yet a boy studying medicine. My study of it at that time was so thorough and careful that thirteen years afterward (1860), when a terrible epidemic of it swept over the country, I at once recognized it, and was able to successfully cope with it. It was ten years before it made its appearance again—the famous epidemic of 1870. It was at this time it was first called "Russian Influenza," because of the fact that it originated in Russia and spread rapidly over the Asiatic and European countries before it was noticed in this country. Twenty years had elapsed before the present epidemic (originating in Russia as before) suddenly appeared among us again, this time bringing its French name across the Atlantic with it.

SYMPTOMS.
Each epidemic present exactly the same symptoms. First, a "lured-out" feeling, general lassitude, cold feet and hands. Second, aching of the bones, transient, fleeting pains throughout the whole body. Third, chilly sensations, from indolent, creeping rigors in slight cases, to pronounced chills in more severe ones. Fourth, fever, with temperature ranging from 102 to 104 degrees Fahrenheit. Fifth, congestion of the eyes, living membrane of the nose, sometimes throat and bronchial tubes. Sixth, profuse sweating occurs in some cases, especially at night, and has run a few days. Seventh, sneezing, and less frequently, coughing, are among the earliest symptoms. Eighth, usually an intense frontal headache, which continues more or less during the whole course of the disease. Ninth, aching and soreness of the muscles of the whole body. Each case presents slight variations, dependent on age, condition of health, etc. During such an epidemic as this one the slightest indisposition should be at once attended to, as a few doses of the proper remedy in the start will do more than weeks of treatment after it fastens itself on the system.

DANGERS.
La Grippe is becoming a very fatal disease; many die of it during the course of each epidemic. In addition to the fatality of this disease, it is to be feared the low and weakened state it produces, giving a chance for other diseases to set in and finish the work. Pneumonia, consumption, congestion of the lungs and brain, acute rheumatism, typhoid fever and typhoid malaria are all frequent followers of La Grippe. However different observers may account for it, the fact remains that every epidemic brings with it a fearful death rate.

TREATMENT.
I have long since passed through what may be called the experiment stage of the doctor's history. In the beginning of my medical career I, like many other physicians, used many drugs, but experience gradually taught me which the reliable few were. Since the epidemic of La Grippe of 1869 I have used invariably in the treatment of this scourge, Pe-ru-na. This remedy so exactly meets all of the symptoms of La Grippe that it is folly to lose any time in experimenting with other remedies.

At the appearance of the first symptoms treatment should be given at once, and kept strictly to the house for a few days. No treatment, however effectual it may be, will always prevent quite a long siege with the disease, but no other medical treatment is necessary than Pe-ru-na. The directions, as they are given on the bottle, are more applicable to chronic diseases, and it is advisable, during the acute stage of the disease, to take a teaspoonful of Pe-ru-na every hour for adults, and a correspondingly less dose for children. During the night, if the patients are quietly sleeping, it is not my custom to wake them to take medicine, but if restless Pe-ru-na should be given regularly the whole twenty-four hours. The recovery is generally slow, even in slight cases. For many days the patient will complain of weakness, slight headache, want of appetite, etc. Pe-ru-na should be taken until the recovery is complete, but after the fever is subdued and the acute stage is past it is better to take it according to the directions on the bottle. Beef tea, mutton broth and milk should be freely given according to the preference of the patient.

People who have La Grippe, the acute stage have passed and their recovery has come to a standstill, as is frequently the case, find in Pe-ru-na exactly the remedy that is suited to their case. It invigorates the whole system, restores the appetite and produces natural sleep. Even after pneumonia or consumption has begun to develop it is not too late except a perfect cure from Pe-ru-na without any other treatment whatever. Many physicians are using it extensively in their practice, at the same time a vast number of people are buying it at the drug stores and treating themselves, and the result is, if there is another remedy the equal of Pe-ru-na for La Grippe it is unknown to me.

DEMOCRATS DID WELL.

But Rock County Districts Are Still Republican.

HACKED UP EVERY COUNTY.

Details of the Outrageous Political Craziness, Designed, Stuffed and Em-broidered by the Long-Headed Surgeon Statesman.

The Gazette and the Madison Journal were the only evening papers in the state outside of Milwaukee that gave the exact details of the local gerrymander to their readers last evening. A review of the state shows that democratic bosses have piled the knife shamelessly. It has been done on the plea of making as many democratic districts as possible, without regard to any other circumstance. Where republican majorities could not be overcome they have been massed so as to leave the fewest possible republican districts, no matter what the irregularities of population may be or what extent adjacent territory has to be cut up. Democrats may well regard it as a masterpiece of ingenuity when they look, for example, at the way Rock, Green and Iowa counties have been joined to get republican majorities punched in one district.

The Eighth Senatorial district, which consists of Green county, the towns of Porter, Union, Magnolia, Center, Spring Valley, Plymouth, Avon, Newark, and village of Evansville, in Rock county, Wayne, Grant, Wisc, Argyle, Blanchard, Fayette county and Mascoe and Brigham, in Iowa were, republican in 1888, 1890, and in 1891, 1892.

The Seventeenth, consisting of Walworth county and the towns of Milton, Lima, Tazewell, Clinton, Rock, Harmony, La Prairie, Johnston, Bradford, Fulton, Janesville, Beloit, village of Edgerton, and the cities of Beloit and Janesville in Rock county, was republican in 1888, 1889, and in 1890, 1891.

In the Seventeenth district the First Assembly district was republican by 1470 in 1888 and in 1890. The towns included are Whitewater, La Grange, Troy, East Troy, Sugar Creek, La Fayette, Spring Prairie, Elkhorn and city of Whitewater in Walworth county, and towns of Milton and Lima in Rock county.

The Second Assembly district including the towns of Darien, Delavan, Geneva, Lyons, Sharon, Linn, Walworth, Bloomfield and city of Lake Geneva, Walworth county; and towns of Tazewell, Clinton, Beloit, city of Beloit and village of Clinton, Rock county, went 2,293 republican in 1888 and 1,186 republican in 1890.

The Third district is doubtful, giving a republican majority of 270 in 1888 and a democratic majority of 169 in 1890. This district embraces the towns of Janesville, Rock, Harmony, La Prairie, Johnston, Bradford, Fulton, Janesville, Beloit, village of Edgerton, and the cities of Beloit and Janesville in Rock county, and which includes the towns of Harmony, Center and Janesville and the city.

JOY FOR BELOIT BOYS.

The College Glee and Banjo Clubs Pleasantly Entertained.

Beloit boys had reason to feel that they were in hospitable hands last evening. In the front row of the gallery at the Congregational church there sat during the concert a line of eighteen young ladies wearing college caps. When the concert was at an end these fair partisans repaired to Columbia Hall where lights were burning and an orchestra was in readiness for the entertainment of the visitors. It was ten o'clock when Professor Tuckerwood signalled for the first walk, and from then until one there was no cessation in the merriment. Those entertained were: Messrs. A. J. Boynton, W. B. Humphrey, C. O. Silberg, A. O. Babbitt, A. F. Fraser, A. Meinhardt, A. E. Moley, S. F. Hervey, G. R. Jenkins, W. P. Behar, G. W. Dunge, J. L. Sexton, A. W. Sinden, C. S. Brett, W. A. Smith, H. E. Erwin, and G. C. Swiler; and those to whom they were indebted were: Misses Marie Colvin, Cora Sutherland, Jennie Rowe, Margie Sheldon, Belle Rolston, Jessie Sherrer, Luc Kent, Florence DeLong, Mame Fernsworth, Belle Mills, Lou Palmer, Birdie Wellington, Charlotte Prichard, Jessie Zeigler, Abby E. Prichard, Miss Baker of Chicago, and Miss Marie Babcock and Miss Lizzie Tinker of Clinton.

COLLEGE STUDENTS VOTED.

Beloit Liquor Dealers Will Try To Overthrow the No-Licenses Majority. Beloit has been thrown into great excitement over the demand on the part of the democrats for a recount of the ballots on the license question, in the First and Second wards. The city gave a majority for no-licenses, and the Second ward is a no-licenses stronghold. The claim is that there were errors in the returns in the First ward and that college students, who voted in the Second ward, have no right to vote there. The recount will be made. It has always been the custom to allow college students to vote, and most of the student vote is for prohibition.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT.

New potatoes, grown in the south, are quoted at $10 to $12 a barrel. Old potatoes are selling at $1.25 a bushel at retail.

Louisiana strawberries are selling at 40 cents a box. Cucumbers, radishes, lettuce, beets, cabbage, etc., from the far south, are plenty in this market, and are selling at reasonable prices.

Bermuda onions are in the lead among the tropical fruits at present.

END THEIR SIXTH YEAR.

Puffer, of Monroe, department president; remarks by Helen Holmes Charlton, of Brodhead; song; recitation by Miss Ida Elliott; song by Rev. E. L. Eaton; remarks by Rev. M. Evans, speech by Rev. C. F. FACTS ABOUT NEIGHBORS.

Lydia Garlick has been appointed postmaster at Independence, Iowa.

A Green Bay mother rushed into the river to save her child and both barely escaped drowning.

Wm. Higgins, the brakeman recently hurt at Edgerton, is recovering, although at first it was thought he would die.

Three deaths from the gripe are reported in Wisconsin. Two were at Whitewater, Luther Cadman, aged 75, and Mrs. Santee, aged 80. Henry J. Foster, a prominent business man of Racine, died very suddenly there of the epidemic.

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION.

Marshal Acheson is again on duty.

Albert Gustafson, of Whitewater, is the latest addition to Child & Company's clerical force.

A special meeting of the common council may be held Monday evening, to canvass the vote of the recent election.

Ex-Alderman Ben. George, of the Fourth ward, is very dangerously ill, and is reported at one time today that he was dying.

America Lodge No. 26, daughters of Rebecca, I. O. G. F., occupy Old Fellows hall this evening—regular semi-monthly meeting.

The next party by the N. O. W. Club will be given at the Army Tuesday evening, April 21. Smith's orchestra will furnish the music.

Hugh Miller and Charles Herman were before the municipal court this morning charged with habitual drunkenness, and were each given sixty days on Sheriff Hogan's stone pile.

Charles Wisch, the barber in the Phoenix block, has one of the best equipped places of business in the city. Good bath rooms in connection. Call on him first class work.

A party of hoodlums were out last night making more noise down in the Fourth ward than a pack of coyotes. They kept up their yelling until after midnight, disturbing quiet people who wished to sleep.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad Company will sell round trip tickets to Dubuque during the G. A. R. encampment for one full fare for the round trip. Tickets will be sold April 14 and 15 good for return until April 18.

Janesville hunters are extremely anxious and some very nervous concerning the fate of the game law now pending in the legislature. They have their breech-loaders in order and dogs in good condition, ready to his themselves to the hunting grounds as soon as the law will permit.

The first entertainment of the Court Street church lecture course will be given on Tuesday evening at the church. Rev. Dr. E. L. Eaton will deliver a lecture on astronomy, which will be illustrated by seventy-five live stereopticon views by Dr. F. M. Brewer, of Evansville, Illinois.

The entertainment given last evening by the Epworth League of Court Street church at the Sunday school room was a success in every particular. Each number on the programme was rendered in an able manner, and each number was well received by the large audience. The managers of the entertainment are to be congratulated on the success attained on the opening of the series of popular entertainments.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The Beloit College Glee and Banjo club delighted a fair sized audience last evening at the Congregational church. Fourteen numbers were on the program, and each number was rendered in so pleasing a manner as to win the plaudits of all present.

"The Limited Mail" had very few passengers on board last evening, and few people were at the opera house to see the "flyer" pass over the stage. The scenic effects of the "Limited Mail" play are really remarkable, and the company should have been better patronized.

"Inshavogue," the favorite Irish comedy-drama, will be presented at Myers' opera house on Monday evening, with J. S. Murphy as the hero of the play, supported by an excellent company, and with startling scenic effects. The play portrays the stormy times and scenes of the revolution of '38 in Ireland. The dialogue is bright and sparkling, abounding in Irish wit. "Inshavogue" is the play in which W. J. Florence has won a world wide reputation. Seats were put on sale at the box office today.

MR. SAWIN NOT AFRAID

Says He Entered the Presbyterian Church Conditionally

WHAT ARE LIBERAL VIEWS

The Former Janesville Pastor Says He Does Not Subscribe to the Westminster Catechism Throughout And Did Not From the First.

Janesville Congregationalists were not a little surprised at the news regarding Rev. T. P. Sawin published in The Gazette. Charges will be made against Mr. Sawin at the next meeting of the presbytery by Rev. William Reed. Mr. Reed called upon Mr. Sawin and asked him to modify his views as declared in recent sermons. Mr. Sawin refused, although according to Mr. Reed, when he was re-ceived, he answered every doctrinal question in the affirmative without hesitation.

Mr. Sawin when seen by a Troy Press reporter, said that when he was received into the presbytery, he was asked if he believed in the Westminster confession. He replied that it was not in all particulars. He answered all the usual questions according to his own belief, and gave a full confession and statement of his views. After he retired the presbytery held a discussion lasting nearly two hours and when he was recalled Rev. Mr. Reed was the first to extend the right hand of fellowship. Since then he has had no change of views and there is no more reason for the preferences of charges against him at the present time than there was when he was received into the presbytery. He entered the presbytery fair haired and square, the members knew just how he stood and he is standing there still. Rev. Mr. Sawin would not say what portions of the confession of faith were objectionable to him. That, he said, would come out on the trial, if there was one.

Mr. Sawin said if the matter was brought before the presbytery it would remain for that body to decide first whether it would entertain the charges. If it was decided to do so it would then be necessary to notify him specifically of his character, that he might, if so disposed, formulate a plan of defense. In that event, it might be, he said, that under the circumstances of his admission to the presbytery he might decide to leave the whole matter in the hands without argument. The best of feeling, he said, prevailed among the members of his congregation, and he thought they would stand by him.

L. B. Caswell Talks of "Treasury Deficiency" Stories

What Wisconsin Must Do to Collect Her Share of the Direct Tax Money—It Amounts to $150,000, and Is Now Payable.

Ex-Congressman Caswell was in the city for a short time last evening and left his name on the Myers House register. Mr. Caswell is looking well in spite of the hard work of the closing session of congress, and he has settled down to enjoy the quiet of private life, and to take part in a trying on the practice of the law of Caswell & Son.

Mr. Caswell was a member of the committee on appropriations in the house and declares that talk about a treasury deficiency is all "buncombe."

There is money enough in the treasury to provide for the redemption of the 4 per cent bonds, due September 1, and from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000, he said to a Gazette reporter. "This is the outlook for July 1 with the revenue recent for July and August to help out to the time when the bonds are due. After the redemption of these bonds no more become due for some years."

L. B. Caswell Talks of "Treasury Deficiency" Stories

CALLED IT ALL "BUNCOMBE"

What Wisconsin Must Do to Collect Her Share of the Direct Tax Money—It Amounts to $150,000, and Is Now Payable.

Ex-Congressman Caswell was in the city for a short time last evening and left his name on the Myers House register. Mr. Caswell is looking well in spite of the hard work of the closing session of congress, and he has settled down to enjoy the quiet of private life, and to take part in a trying on the practice of the law of Caswell & Son.

Mr. Caswell was a member of the committee on appropriations in the house and declares that talk about a treasury deficiency is all "buncombe."

There is money enough in the treasury to provide for the redemption of the 4 per cent bonds, due September 1, and from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000, he said to a Gazette reporter. "This is the outlook for July 1 with the revenue recent for July and August to help out to the time when the bonds are due. After the redemption of these bonds no more become due for some years."

Mr. Caswell devoted much of his time during the last session of congress to securing the passage of the direct tax refunding bill which returned to the several states some $17,000,000 of money raised by the federal government to carry on the war. Wisconsin's share in the direct refund is about $450,000 and some surprise is expressed that Wisconsin has not made her claim upon the government for the sum due. Other states are putting in their claims and obtaining the money due them.

"The money due Wisconsin on account of the direct tax refund is ready," said Mr. Caswell, "and will be paid to the commonwealth as soon as the administration complies with the law, and makes the formal demand for it. To do this it is necessary for both houses to pass the resolution accepting the amount due the state as payment in full of all claims of the state on account of the direct tax raised by Wisconsin and paid to the federal government. When such a resolution has been passed all that remains to be done is for the governor to make formal demand for the $450,000 due, and it will be paid over."

STRIKES WHILE AT PRAYER.

Sudden Death of Mrs. James Bailey.

MILTON, April 8.—The funeral of Mrs. James Bailey took place Sunday afternoon from the house, Rev. E. M. Dunn officiating, assisted by President W. C. Whitford.

"The occasion which has called us together today," said the pastor, "is the death of one who was greatly beloved by all who knew her, not perfect, least of all would she claim it, yet full bred in all the graces which adorn christian womanhood as a wife and mother, as a friend and neighbor none of us can call to mind her superior. Miss Tracy Hubbard was born and well born in Berlin, New York April 14, 1815. She died April 2, 1891. She lived twelve days of being 76 years of age at the time of her decease. Her father was James Hubbard, her mother was Anya Stillman. The latter was sister of "Uncle" Joseph Stillman, and thus sister Bailey was own cousin to Thomas B. Stillman, and his brothers, all of whom were eminent in their professions, as two as physicians and the third as a life of mechanical engineering and invention. The deceased made a profession of christianity at 12 years of age, was baptized by Satterlee, and was received into the Seventh-day Baptist church at Berlin, New York. In her early life her parents moved to the village of South, New York. When between twenty-five and twenty-six years of age she was united in marriage with Rev. James Bailey, who had been ordained the gospel ministry for a year and a half, and who at the time was pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist church at De Ruyter, New York, and editor of our denominational paper, the Seventh-day Baptist Register. On Thursday morning, March 26, while the family were engaged in their usual religious services, and sister Bailey was reading from the 11th chapter of the book of Daniel, she was attacked with her first stroke of paralysis. A second one more severe occurred on Monday afternoon. A third came on Tuesday night at 11 o'clock which so completely prostrated her that she lay unconscious for thirty-three hours and quietly breathed her last at 8:30 on Thursday morning. Previous to this last stroke, anticipating that her departure was near she expressed her readiness to go, yet desired to live as long as she could to assist in the care of her husband, a duty which she had cheerfully and heroically performed since his last serious illness which culminated in his loss of sight. In her death this family group have lost a jewel, but have the riches and the duties entered within the gates are left ajar, so that somewhat of the heavenly light streams back upon us, and we feel the magnetic power of her presence there and seem to see her hand beckoning us thither. Deceased leaves an aged husband and two children, Miss M. E. Bailey of this place, and Dr. E. S. Bailey, of Hahnemann Medical College."
